What others are saying about the Volunteer Management Certificate Program...

"I picked up so many ideas that I can use right away in my organization to help get more volunteers and keep the ones we have."

"I had no idea that managing volunteers involved so much. Plus, the training was so much fun!"

"I recommend this training to anyone who deals with even one volunteer a year."

Volunteer Management Certificate Program

WHO: The Volunteer Management Certificate Program is ideal for people who are responsible for coordinating volunteers in either the community-based or public sectors OR for volunteers who coordinate the efforts of other volunteers in non-profits.

WHAT: The Community Services Council has developed an intensive 2-day certificate program designed to provide the practical skills and information needed to carry out a vibrant and sustainable program for volunteers.

Topics covered include

- ✓ Planning a Volunteer Program
- ✓ Recruiting Volunteers
- ✓ Training and Orientation for Volunteers
- ✓ Screening Volunteers
- ✓ Dealing with Difficult Volunteers
- ✓ Retaining Volunteers

WHEN: December 4 & 5, 2008
9 am - 5 pm

WHERE: Community Services Council Newfoundland and Labrador
2nd Floor, Virginia Plaza, Newfoundland Drive, St. John's

WHY: Successful management of volunteers will benefit both the organization and its precious resource of volunteers. Participants will learn through case studies, discussion, and group work, and have the opportunity to network with others interested in effective volunteer management techniques.

TO REGISTER OR FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Bettina Ford at 1-877-651-1140
Email bettinaford@csc.nf.net
Register online at <http://forms.envision.ca/en/volunteermanagement>

COST: $369 per person - Includes lunch and refreshments or $309 per person if 2 or more from the same organization

CSC will offer two free registrations to this event. These spaces are reserved for small voluntary organizations which have limited resources and a strong commitment to volunteer management. Approval will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

Registration fee must be paid in advance. Payment can be made by Visa or MasterCard or a cheque made payable to Community Services Council Newfoundland and Labrador.

This workshop is being offered subject to sufficient registration numbers.
